How to do St. Paddy's like a PRO

Tina Tai

March 17th. Everyone's favorite holiday. Binge drinking, green glitter, and leprechauns throwing around gold coins: what could be better?? Unless...that's not everyone's idea of a fun time?

If you're not a fan of bar hopping and wearing a monochrome outfit of green on St. Patrick's Day, here are some other ways you can show your festive spirit in the name of the holiday!

1. Get a box of Lucky Charms cereal. Separate the dried marshmallows from the actual cereal and just shove handfuls of these so-called marshmallows in your face while watching "The Umbrella Academy". 6/10 probably a good time, might give you a sugar rush/
2. Not into cereal? Opt for some chocolate coins instead. Throw it at your friends. 9/10 a fantastic time, because you get to see your friends smile from getting chocolate coins, but one or two might get mad at you for throwing things at them.
3. Plant some succulents. They're green. Nurture your love for plants by taking care of your own little terrarium and by following @thelistergreenhouse on Instagram! 8/10 will make you feel good to take care of something; the only downside is that you can still kill succulents, contrary to popular opinion (Am I speaking from experience?? You'll never know!)

All jokes aside, if you do plan on going out with some friends and partake in the consumption of alcohol in the spirit of St. Paddy's, please remember to stay safe! Drink responsibly and keep an eye out for your friends. It may be all fun and games in the moment, but when you're puking up bright green at 3 AM the entire night probably seems less fun. Anyway, enjoy yourselves, and just remember the phrase "only if you want to and at your own pace" ;)

Allstar Recap

Alexis Jones

AllStars. It's an annual dodgeball tournament where all towers (Schaffer, Chalifoux, Henday, Kelsey) compete against each other...RIP Mackenzie. The teams are decided by the liaisons in a four hour meeting after they have done weeks of scouting for their tower.

Tuesday

Schaffer (3) vs Henday (2)

The first game was classic and was won by Schaffer. The next game was doctor and Henday killed Schaffer's doctor, and resulted in Henday standing with a full team at the end, making the game 1-1. Next was classic where Schaffer won again, and the game afterwards was doctor where Schaffer killed Henday's doctor. This gave Schaffer the win over Henday but there was still one game left to play which was classic: it was a very close game but Henday came out with the win.

Chalifoux (3) vs Kelsey (2)

The first game was classic, which Kelsey won. The next game was doctor and ended in a tie so it had to be decided by a 1 v 1 which Chalifoux won. The third game was classic and Kelsey won again, and the fourth game was doctor which Chalifoux won. The fifth and deciding game was classic and was won by Chalifoux.

Wednesday

The fourth game was classic and it was very close as Henday only won by one player. The game after was doctor, where Chalifoux killed Henday's doctor near the middle of the game, but Henday killed the Chalifoux doctor later on in the game. It seems that Henday didn't kill Chalifoux's doctor early enough, making Chalifoux the winner of this doctor game.

Elections are coming

Will Maciejowski

March is well underway and midterm season is coming to a close, and sometimes you just need to take a break and curl up with your Netflix-watching device. Additionally, the stress of finals is looming, so here are some Netflix recommendations to ease up the rest of your month and to carry you into the final leg of the semester.

GET SMART (2008)

GET SMART follows the journey of Maxwell Smart (Steve Carell), a control analyst turned field agent. He and his partner (Anne Hathaway) attempt to foil a nuclear plot and an attempted assassination on the American President. As you probably guessed from the cast, get ready for a good laugh. If you are in the mood to chill out and be entertained by something not too deep, but still action packed, GET SMART is the way to go.

THE LINCOLN LAWYER (2011)

The Lincoln Lawyer is based on Michael Connelly's 2005 novel. It follows the story of Mickey Haller (Matthew McConaughey) who is driven around in his trademark Lincoln. He defends a few questionable clients and gets wrapped up in a case that makes him second guess one of his past cases. There are plot twists and turns that will keep you captivated throughout the movie. If you are in the mood for a crime thriller, give The Lincoln Lawyer a shot.

THE DARK KNIGHT RISES (2012)

Finally, we have Christian Bale's last Batman movie, The Dark Knight Rises. The villain, Bane (Tom Hardy), ends up forcing Batman out of hiding for another epic superhero showdown. If you are in the mood for an action packed movie, a DC fan, or just like Anne Hathaway (Catwoman), The Dark Knight Rises should be on your list of potential March Netflix escapes.
